

FAIRTRADE STUDENT FOCUS GROUP

Want to learn more about how Durham University supports Fairtrade?

Join our Fairtrade Student Focus Group and help shape what Fairtrade looks like across campus.

We're looking for students to share thoughts, creative ideas, and real experiences. Whether you're passionate about sustainability or just curious about how Fairtrade fits into everyday student life, this is a great opportunity to speak up for what you care about – ethics, sustainability, student impact, and global fairness.

Tuesday 17 March, 11am, Tristram Room

Lunch will be provided in Haughton for both residents and non-residents

Register here:

